

UNITED STATES TAX COURT

Washington, D.C. 20217

January 12, 2022

PRESS RELEASE

After assessing public health and other factors relating to the rapid nationwide increase of COVID-19 cases, the U.S. Tax Court has determined that it is not appropriate to conduct in-person proceedings in January 2022. Accordingly, these trial sessions are modified as follows:

Trial Session	Calendar	Change
January 18, 2022	San Francisco (Special) Docket No. 21959-16	In-person to remote on January 31, 2022
January 24, 2022	Houston (Regular)	In-person to remote
January 31, 2022	San Diego (Small)	In-person to remote
January 31, 2022	Seattle (Regular)	In-person to remote

Appropriate notices will be issued in each case remaining on the above-referenced calendars. General information about remote proceedings is on the Tax Court website (<https://ustaxcourt.gov/>) under Rules & Guidance/COVID-19 Resources.

Questions regarding cases calendared for the impacted trial sessions should be directed to the appropriate chambers, and general inquiries should be sent to the Public Affairs Office at publicaffairs@ustaxcourt.gov.
