

UNITED STATES TAX COURT
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20217

STATISTICAL INFORMATION
NON-ATTORNEY EXAMINATION

The number of examinees, and number who passed the 2000 through 2014 exams are listed below. In addition to showing good moral and professional character, a non-attorney applicant must, as a condition of being admitted to practice, satisfy by means of a written examination that the applicant possesses the requisite qualifications to provide competent representation before the Court. Rule 200(c) requires an applicant for admission by examination to be sponsored by at least two persons theretofore admitted to practice before the Tax Court.

| Year | Number of Examinees | Number Who Passed the Exam | Pass Rate |
|------|---------------------|----------------------------|-----------|
| 2000 | 102 | 17 | 16.67% |
| 2002 | 47 | 7 | 14.89% |
| 2004 | 72 | 4 | 5.56% |
| 2006 | 58 | 6 | 10.34% |
| 2008 | 54 | 8 | 14.81% |
| 2010 | 83 | 8 | 9.64% |
| 2012 | 77 | 11 | 14.29% |
| 2014 | 126 | 23 | 18.25% |