

United States Tax Court

Washington, DC 20217

October 27, 2025

PRESS RELEASE

Due to the ongoing federal Government shutdown, the United States Tax Court has determined that it is appropriate to cancel the following sessions for the week of November 3, 2025:

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Las Vegas, Nevada; Seattle, Washington; and Los Angeles, California.

The Tax Court will announce the cancelation of future trial sessions on its website no later than one week before those sessions are scheduled to begin. The Court will issue cancelation orders in the cases pending on the canceled sessions, and the orders will be served via the parties' respective service methods (paper or electronic). Cases that are continued because of the shutdown will be set for a future trial calendar as soon as practical.

The Clerk's Office remains open for eFiling and paper filing. If you have questions about a scheduled trial session during the Government shutdown, please call 202-521-0700 during normal business hours (8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Eastern time).
