

UNITED STATES TAX COURT
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20217

STATISTICAL INFORMATION
NONATTORNEY EXAMINATION

The number of examinees, and number who passed the 2000 through 2018 exams are listed below. In addition to showing good moral and professional character, a non-attorney applicant must, as a condition of being admitted to practice, satisfy by means of a written examination that the applicant possesses the requisite qualifications to provide competent representation before the Court. Rule 200(c) requires an applicant for admission by examination to be sponsored by at least two persons theretofore admitted to practice before the Tax Court.

Year	Number of Examinees	Number Who Passed the Exam	Pass Rate
2000	102	17	16.67%
2002	47	7	14.89%
2004	72	4	5.56%
2006	58	6	10.34%
2008	54	8	14.81%
2010	83	8	9.64%
2012	77	11	14.29%
2014	126	23	18.25%
2016	119	16	13.45%
2018	143	22	15.38%