

UNITED STATES TAX COURT
Washington, D.C. 20217

July 17, 2020

PRESS RELEASE

Chief Judge Maurice B. Foley announced that, effective July 16, 2020, Senior Judge Joel Gerber has retired and is no longer recalled for judicial service.

Judge Gerber was appointed as Judge, United States Tax Court, by President Reagan and sworn in for his first 15-year term on June 18, 1984. He was reappointed by President Clinton and sworn in for his second 15-year term on December 15, 2000. Judge Gerber served as Chief Judge of the Court from June 1, 2004 until May 31, 2006, and has served on recall since June 1, 2006.

The Court thanks Judge Gerber for his many years of excellent service. His contributions to this Court and to the Court's jurisprudence will be missed.
